Updates from Reed

Advancement

- Fred Ratté joined the Alumni Relations team as administrative coordinator on March 6.
- Jennifer Sonntag, associate director of direct marketing (managing our data segmentation and student phonathon program) left on April 5. We are determining the best way to use that FTE going forward.
- Sabrina Smith '18, associate director of advancement, decided to step away from Reed after being here since becoming a student in 2014. She left April 7 and we are recruiting a successor.
- Progress against goals:

Across the College

- Academic Program
  - Nine tenure-track positions have been approved and filled: two each in computer science, psychology and statistics and one each in chemistry, economics and political science. A search for studio art continues.
- Admissions
  - Admissions staff have begun to travel again, although focusing on conferences with counselors since in-person college fairs and visits to high schools haven't returned to pre-Covid levels
  - Hosting in-person events for admitted students in selected cities this month
  - 96% of attendees have rated Reed's virtual events as excellent or good
  - 70% of prospective students who attend virtual events enroll at Reed

- Reed continues to be test blind (3rd year in a row); admitted students are invited to share their scores, and the majority do, giving Admissions confidence that we are continuing to attract and enroll students with comparable test scores to previous classes
  - For Reed, the key to increasing the diversity of admitted students is to increase the diversity of the applicant pool. Therefore, Reed continues to focus on high school sophomores and juniors, and to partner with organizations who serve families from diverse populations
  - Decision date for admitted students is May 1. Students of color make up 44% of admitted students; international students make up 12%. The admitted class represents 50 states, 3 territories and 31 countries outside the U.S.
  - Facilities
    - 545 students, faculty and staff attended the library (re)opening celebration on 3/23/23
    - Work on the Sports Center has finally been permitted and demolition has begun

Committee Reports and Updates from Leadership Groups

Committee for Young Alumni

Laramie Silber

The Committee has good momentum going on a number of projects. In a more zoomed out perspective, we are continuing to be thoughtful about the term “young” alumni and not inadvertently excluding folks who belong in our segment. We are also continuing to be on the lookout for productive places to piggyback CYA interaction onto existing events/outreach. Our next meeting will be in May.

New Projects

- Disorientation packet
  - An alum-to-alum supplement to the institutional post-graduation literature
  - Progress on building out sections and timelines
  - "Surviving Outside the Bubble" “what I didn’t know I needed to know until I needed to know it”
- CYA onboarding guide
- CYA participation in Senior Celebration May 12th

Ongoing work: Pathfinders Initiative

- Approved surveys for participants on both sides of the Initiative
- Completed a review of onboarding procedures and materials

- Identifying Sweepers for each Community of Purpose

Diversity and Inclusion Committee

Lilia Raquel Rosas

The Alumni Board Diversity and Inclusion Committee (DIC) continued to meet over the course of the last few months to plan the 30th anniversary of the Multicultural Resource Center (MRC) for either May, Reunions (June), or FAR (October). For now, a first event acknowledging the creation and importance of the MRC will most likely be coupled with a combined Affinity Groups event at Reunions. Another focus, which emerged, is finding an additional DIC member to co-chair the committee. Since the resignation of Jac Nelson in October, Lilia Raquel Rosas has served as the only chair of the DIC. The goal is to return to a two-person leadership structure by the next fiscal year. Finally, the DIC would like to acknowledge the departure of Sabrina Smith '18, Associate Director of Advancement for Advancement & Alumni Relations, and express our sincerest gratitude for all her work, insight, innovation, and support of the DIC.

Reed Career Alliance

Liz Gilkey

Since our last Board report and presentation, RCA has undertaken the following:

1. We hosted “Reedie Women in Tech,” the ninth event in our ongoing virtual Career Pathways panel series. Reed alumnae including Barbary Brunner '87, Nada Lulic '86, Jennifer Jordan '89, and moderator Sofiya Deva '16 had a lively and insightful discussion of their experiences of misogyny in the tech industry, and how they found success shattering the glass ceiling by doing outstanding work, speaking truth to power, and being authentic to themselves. 23 people attended.
2. RCA will be moderating a Career Pathways panel at Alumni College on June 8, 2023 3:30pm PT, “Working as a Creative: How a Reed education did/didn’t prepare us for working as an entrepreneur”. Govind Nair '83 will moderate on behalf of RCA (and also as his last task as outgoing RCA Co-Chair).
3. RCA’s transition to its previously announced succession plan is now underway. Incoming Co-Chair Liz Gilkey will henceforth take the lead in representing RCA at the Board and will be formally joined by Matt Giger in June 2023, once Govind steps down.

Alumni Fundraising for Reed

Katherine Lefever and Kyndra Homuth Kennedy

AFR Outreach - April update:

1. In February, AFR Steering Committee members focused on volunteer recruitment. This is the first time in recent memory that we’ve held a volunteer drive outside of a fundraising period. In total, 16 volunteers reached out to 83 volunteer prospects, and recruited 3 new volunteers.

Here's some information about how we did in March:

AFR volunteers dove into the March outreach campaign, which was centered around "Opening Doors" and raising support for financial aid. During this month-long campaign, 32 volunteers reached out to 365 households. We have not quite achieved our goal of 1,000 donors, but the office is still processing some mail from the campaign.

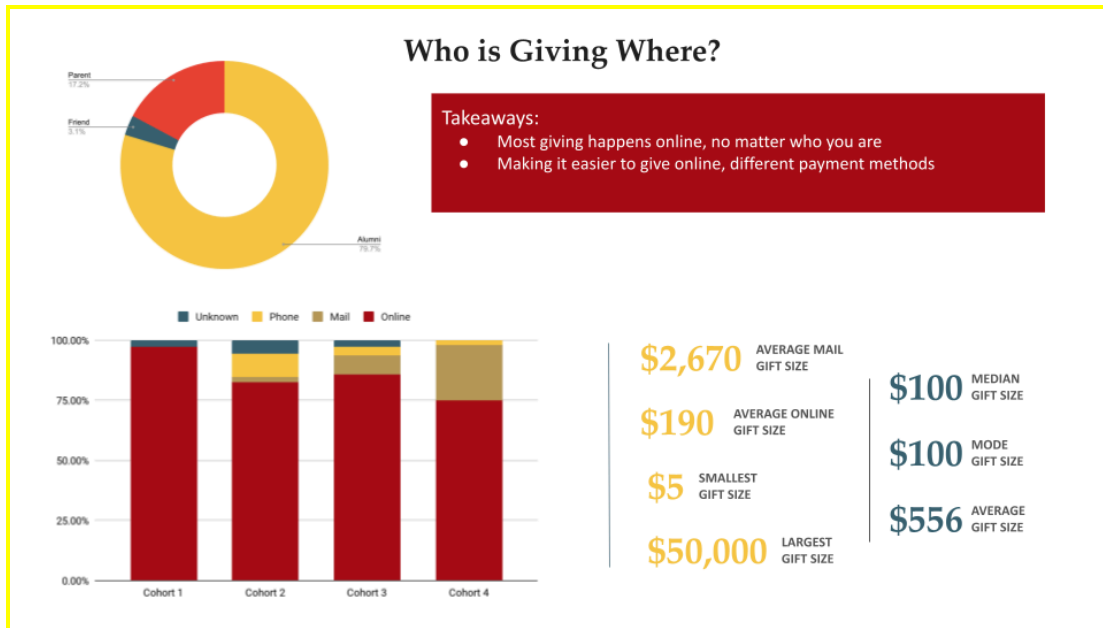

In addition to peer-to-peer outreach, our social media ambassadors were activated to promote the campaign online. 24 social media ambassadors shared Reed's content 31 times.

Our social media ambassadors have declined in number since last year. Since many members of the Alumni Board are social media ambassadors (thank you!), we'd love your feedback if you felt more engaged last year vs this year.

Last March data:

	Vols Recruited	Vols Completed	Total Contacts	Total SMAs
March 2022	42	34	419	36
March 2023	37	32	442	24

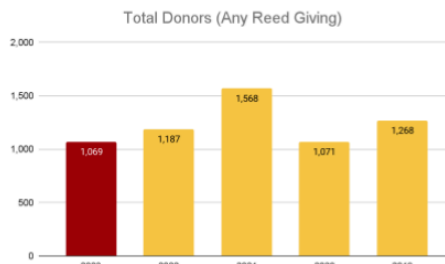

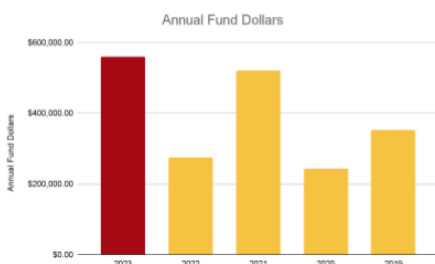

March Campaign:

Year-Over-Year Trends

*ALL gifts for the entire month of March, not March campaign exclusive

Year	2023	2022	2021	2020	2019
March Campaign Dates (for Reference)	March 14-Apr 3	March 18-31	March 17-31	March 6-16	March 1-15

Takeaways:

- We saw fewer donors during March (total) than previous years, but a higher gift total ($)

Source: march_totals_five_years_20230410.xlsx

Cohort Breakdown

Takeaways:

- Cohort 4, unsurprisingly, gave more gifts than the other Cohorts
- Cohort 4's average gift size was more than 25x the size of Cohort 1
- Note: Cohort 4 spans 75 years

Average Gift Size

Total Gift Value

What's coming up: Reedies Drink Reedie Wine For Reed is returning on April 13 from 6 pm-8 pm in Portland. This fundraising event has no cost to attend and helps garner alumni participation in the Annual Fund. The planning committee has secured a $2,000 match for gifts made at the event.

AFR meets again in May, with eyes towards our final fundraising period of the fiscal year in June.

Asks:

While our volunteer drive is officially over for now, we are always in need of volunteers both for general outreach periods and for the AFR Steering Committee. Please email alumni@reed.edu if you know of anyone who might be interested.

Chapter Leadership Council

Johanna Colgrove

I don't think we actually have much to report at the moment. Chapters are having events, we're working on recruitment efforts as always, and clarifying the process of nominations to the alumni board. Chapter leader volunteers continue to make things happen along with some new leadership and new participants. We have a couple groups in non chapter cities who are starting to plan events and think about becoming chapters.

  - In-person lectures are happening on campus again—beginning with Vollum Lecture earlier this month
  - Strong Admission numbers
  - Library seismic upgrades are complete

  - Question from GN: How is the BOT committee on diversity composed?
    - CL: Standing committee, each member is on the diversity committee plus one other BOT committee
      - Currently reviewing Association of Governing Boards policy for compliance with DEI

Updates from Alumni Trustees

3 minutes

Carla and Christine

- BOT committees met earlier this month (Feb 10–11)
  - Voted in two new members (Larry Abramson '80 and Susan Sokol-Blosser MALS '67)
- Participated in plenary session for the upcoming $200M+ fundraising campaign
  - Most of this money will come from BOT donors
  - Feasibility interviews have raised some questions, but mostly went well
  - CB asked Hugh Porter if the department was adequately resourced to reach this campaign goal. Hugh believes so, now that we are fully staffed.
- BOT honored Kevan Shokat with the Vollum Award
  - Dr. Shokat is a chemist doing work in cancer research
- BOT recently passed an ethics policy
  - Parameters around ethical behavior for BOT members
- Working on diversifying the BOT
  - Good mix of gender and race, per Carla
  - Hard to diversify in terms of age due to the expectations of BOT members being difficult to uphold for younger people
- BOT continues to be concerned about the rate of retention and matriculation among Reed undergraduates. Why are so many students leaving Reed? Why has this been an issue for so long?

Updates from AB Committees

15 minutes

Committee chairs

- CYA
  - CYA is about to have a committee meeting later this week
  - A new member is joining CYA—background in social science. Will bring a new perspective to how we analyze data we have about new alumni
    - Rethinking how the 10-year cohort model does or does not align with most alumni's career development trajectories
  - CYA will be hosting new alumni meet-ups before each Reed on the Road (ROTR)
  - CYA is going to assess (and refresh, if necessary) its programming to ensure it is relevant
  - CYA plans to assess whether its marketing and outreach efforts are efficient. Advertising gets spikes in activity with Pathfinders, but engagement with the program is not steady
  - Still working on the alumni-to-alumni “surviving outside the Reed bubble” welcome packet
- DIC
  - aa: Review of Lilia Raquel Rosas's report

- aa: DIC is thinking through ideas to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Multicultural Resource Center (MRC)
  - Likely going to partner with Archivist Tracy Drake and current students to do a mini-oral history project, similar to Comrades of the Quest, but from the perspective of folks who weren't tapped to participate the first time around
- RCA
  - GN: This may be Govind's final RCA report read-out. He has very much enjoyed working with the RCA these past three years (and will continue to do so! Just in a different capacity)
    - Matt Giger '89 and Liz Gilkey '01 will be RCA co-chairs moving forward
  - GN: A year ago, RCA planned to put together a vision document—attempt at messaging around RCA's goals, targets, ethics, etc
    - This was not planned to be a governing or strategic planning doc
    - Doc is a guide for messaging around the committee's purpose
  - GN: We have done a good job of representing the diversity of career experience present in the alumni community
    - Also trying to represent different issues that occur throughout different career fields (e.g. experiences of women working in STEM fields)
  - GN: Believes data collection and analysis is very important, glad to hear that it is an institutional priority at Reed. RCA has been tracking the amount of labor required to put on RCA events—about 150 hours of staff and volunteer labor/event
    - GN has recommended to Alice Harra (of CLBR) that Reed hire an intern to this sort of data collection and analysis around what goes into planning alumni events
  - Succession: Liz Gilkey and Matt Geiger are going to be the new RCA co-chairs, moving forward. GN hopes to collect documentation and institutional knowledge recorded for posterity.
  - DB: Much love and appreciation for all that Govind has done for RCA and AB
    - LG: GN has left behind large shoes to fill, but all of his thoughtful planning is making it easy to fill them

Other Updates

- Alumni Fundraising for Reed 5 minutes    Aurore
  - AFR is shifting to a cohort-based model, grouping alumni by when they departed Reed, instead of by giving amount
  - Working on refining some systems that will hopefully make the March campaign simpler

- Recently had a volunteer recruitment campaign that was unsuccessful (out of 80 contacts, only 1 volunteer was recruited). Rethinking how to attract volunteers
    - Question from HPC: What were the parameters for the volunteer drive? ~80 seems like a small recruitment pool
      - AG: Not sure, need to get back to you
  - Question from DB: Are those donor numbers year-to-date? It seems like we are really lagging behind last year.
    - AG: We are behind. It may have to do with the scaled back Phonathon program
    - DR: Surprised to hear that Phonathon is not being utilized as much
      - SZP: We used to partner with a third-party service to have ~20 Phonathon callers reach out to 12–15k people. After the Phonathon Manager quit, the program was scaled back to ~9 callers reaching out to 1-2k people.
      - SZP: Decision to scale back Phonathon was made to free up resources (1 FTE employee and some operating budget dollars) for a new digital marketing program, focusing on social media and video
- Chapter Leadership Council 5 minutes    Andrei
    - AS: Chair of CLC couldn't attend the last meeting. Gray Karpel ran the meeting in Johanna's absence
    - AS: CLC is focusing on getting their chapters handbook together to provide guidance and SOPs for aspiring chapter leaders
    - AS: If any of you know folks in a chapter city, recommend them for CLC
  - Presidential Updates 10 minutes    Dave
    - DB: We would like to have the AB meeting on Friday instead of Saturday or Sunday to avoid competing with other events
      - EL: A Friday meeting is not ideal for folks who have to work
      - AS: Is sensitive to work schedules, but feels Friday is ideal because it allows AB members to be present for most of Reunions weekend. Hopefully this is being announced with enough advance notice that folks can adjust their lunch breaks or take off a little early to participate in a Zoom meeting.
    - DB: ROTR is coming up next month
      - To folks in chapter cities, please be aware that Reed on the Road switches which cities it visits every year
    - DB did send a letter to Hugh Porter and Audrey Bilger about thanking Advancement staff for their service, waiting to hear back from them

- DB: Saw a post on Switchboard from an older alum looking for a ride from Irvine, CA to PDX for her 65th Reunion. If anyone knows anyone in SoCal, let Dave know so he can connect them

- Alumni College (June 7-9)

5 minutes Dave

- DB: This year's AC is themed around artisans
  - Theme aligns with two CLBR communities of purpose (Arts & Expression and Entrepreneurship & Business Strategy)
  - Govind will be moderating a panel at AC
- Question from DR: Is anything changing with Reunions? I know lots of folks are excited to attend
  - AG: Event should look similar to previous years. We are looking for additional vols from certain quinquennial class years

- Alumni Xenia results

5 minutes Aurore

- AG: We have 36 pages of notes detailing all the different ways alumni volunteered in their community
- Question from DB: How did the vol numbers break down by cohort?
  - AG: Not sure, but we can get those numbers to you shortly
    - Note: AG followed up on this via the AB listserv

President's Wrap-Up

2 minutes Dave

- SZP: Before we wrap-up, let's introduce Sean Brown, student senate VP. Sean is the student liaison to AB and will be joining our meetings moving forward.
  - DB: Welcome Sean! If you have any questions/comments/concerns, please do share them.
- DB: Thank you all for your time! Enjoy the rest of your Sunday

Adjourn

1 minute Dave

- DB: Motion to adjourn?
  - Motion!
  - Seconded!
  - Unanimously approved—bye, all
